ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I dedicate this thesis to Ananyaa, my sister and my biggest inspiration.

This thesis would have been incomplete without the support of my mother and my father, who have helped me through each step of this journey. Thank you for having faith in me, for providing me guidance each time I needed it.

I would like to acknowledge my guide, Ms Anagha Deshmukh, for assisting me in this process. Your insightful suggestions were extremely valuable in formulating this thesis.

I would like to thank the Department of Clinical Psychology, for presenting this opportunity to me. I have learnt a lot during the course of this dissertation.

Lastly, my friends, Narayan Pai and Neeraja R, who have so selflessly helped me each time in completing various parts of this thesis and have always supported me emotionally. I am extremely grateful for you.

And to everybody who has participated in this research and made it possible, thank you.

Anuksha Varma
